

JONATHAN OLIVER

Biography

Jonathan says that his mission is to create a world of truth, love, and faith. He is committed to motivating, educating, and spreading the word of Jesus Christ. He earned a Bachelor of Behavioral Science in 2003 majoring in Psychology, with a minor in Biology. He is the founder of Higher Enlightenment which he started in 2005. Higher Enlightenment is a firm that provides spiritual and intelligent insight to others which helps them to believe in themselves and reach beyond their fears. By assisting them in this he assists others in living their dreams.

He is a dynamic speaker and seminar presenter. He is available for speaking engagements. He is currently completing his first book titled Impersonations. It is an inspirational book that shares how he overcame dyslexia and a recovery program to live his dream. Jonathan is also a certified speaker for Monster's Making It Count Programs, where he speaks to high school and college students throughout the country on preparing for college and career.
